V. Superintendent Reports

The superintendent may present reports at this time.

Dr. Valenzuela shared the enrollment report.

Dr. Valenzuela showed some CPR photos. He thanked Mr. Bonner for leading the charge.

Dr. Valenzuela shared a photo from the AZ I-19 Most Influential People Event – Mr. Paul Williams

Dr. Valenzuela said that virtually most all of our students were not born on 911, he said that we remember and honor the people that perished that day, and all of those that protect and serve our community, and are necessary to preserve our freedoms. He showed a short video of the event that took place at Anza Trail.

Dr. Valenzuela also shared a video of the PAC Dance Team who have once again gone viral on YouTube with their homecoming dance performance.

VI. Governing Board Reports

Approved at the October 2, 2019, Governing Board Meeting

The Governing Board may present reports at this time.

Denise Reis - Attended the ASBA Law Conference

Kevin Opalka – Attended the ASBA Law Conference/Delegate Assembly, he also attended the ATS Patriot Day. Mr. Opalka said that the connectivity that we have with our First Responders and others is very evident. It is nice to see these people at our schools. He also mentioned that ATS had a movie night at the school and it was a good turnout.

Shari Lowell – Attended the ASBA Law Conference, there were about 700 in attendance. She attended the SHS open house a few weeks ago, and last night she attended Walden Groves. She looks forward to her first swim meet tomorrow. She said that Grace Church had an event that was called Back Pack Event and they gave about 100 backpacks. Thanked the pastor of Grace Church for all they do for the community.

John Sparks attended the ASBA Law Conference as well, he said he has attended the past 5 years, some years it is the content and other times it is the speakers. He came home more energized to do this work. He said he was in attendance at the ATS Patriot Day and it speaks to the heart of our community, it is a service oriented community. People attend and participate in the event that do not even have children in our school district. He attended football games, and open house at both high schools. Both HS team stadiums were packed. He believes that he is blessed to be part of this work.
