V. Superintendent Reports

The superintendent may present reports at this time.

The enrollment shows a small decrease but the overall enrollment for the year is still moving in a positive direction

Dr. Valenzuela congratulated the Chamber Choir from WGHS who competed at the NAU Festival. They received a Superior with Distinction. It is the highest score they could receive.

Dr. Valenzuela also mentioned that the Walden Grove Student Council received the Unit of Distinction highest score, it is the equivalent of receiving a State Title.

Dr. Valenzuela that the State of the District was a success. This event was sold out, and he thanked Ms. Woods for all of her efforts in planning the event. It is a great chance to showcase our goals, our programs and our directions. What Dr. Valenzuela tries to highlight is the trust relationships and community. Our students truly are greatest ambassador with their achievements, character, and talents, it was a neat event.

Approved at the February 27, 2019, Governing Board Meeting

Governing Board Meeting Minutes, February 13, 2019

Dr. Valenzuela said that Mr. Bonner shared that he attended the JTED Governing Board Meeting last night and the Superintendent of JTED Kathy Prather, mentioned Sahuarita and the State of the District, and the District's forward thinking cooperative attitude to build new programs, HVAC and Heavy Equipment.

Dr. Valenzuela said that the District will be busy this weekend, we will be hosting the a Middle School Wrestling Tournament Rodeo Round Up through Saturday. We will also be hosting the Southern Region Honor Festival. We will have some of the finest young musicians visiting. We will have between 40-50 students participating in this event. It makes Dr. Valenzuela proud that we have students representing our District at such a high level.

Dr. Valenzuela also mentioned and congratulated the Walden Grove Wrestling Team for earning their First State Wrestling Championship. He said he is most proud of how our students conduct themselves.

Dr. Valenzuela also mentioned that all of our soccer teams competed for the State Title.

Dr. Valenzuela also congratulated the SHS cheer squad, they placed 2nd Place in the AIA State Competition. A video was shown of the SHS cheer routine.

Dr. Valenzuela also wished the SHS Jockeys and WGHS Pac Dance Teams who will be competing at State.

VI. Governing Board Reports

The Governing Board may present reports at this time.

Mr. Opalka said that he went to the WGHS girls basketball game, his son participated in the half time show. His son was a pen pal with one of the players. The entire 1st Grade Class was part of the event. He said that the girls did a great job, and they were great sportsmen. He said that this was the first event that he attended as a Board Member. He said we have a lot of talent.

Mrs. Lowell said that she was part of the White Elephant event and it was great to see all the volunteers come out and support our District and watched our kids perform. She said that she had a chance to speak to a lot of them, and she thanked them for their generous donations to our schools. Mrs. Lowell also went to the State of the District. She said that it was wonderful to see members from our community. She said Mr. Walden was there and he enjoyed the performances. Mrs. Lowell also said that the Southwest Music Festival is a mind blowing experience with all of the talent and all the schools, as well as our teachers. She said she is looking forward to the festival her son Theodore, will be performing. She also mentioned that the Stingrays will be hosting the Junior Olympics at our Aquatics Center. We will shine brightly. She looks forward to having visitors, come by and say Hi.

Mr. Sparks said that Mrs. Lowell has mentioned some of the same things he was going to speak about. He said that it was impressive to see all of the orchestra, 150 students on the stage at one time. Mr. Sparks said that he also went to the SHS Drama performance "I Never Saw Another Butterfly", the Drama group does an amazing job. He was glad he got to see the performance and hopes they will do it again before they leave to Regionals. He will also be attending the Regional Music Festival. He said that it is amazing seeing all of the fine arts and athletics happening on campuses and all of the talent. Mr. Sparks also mentioned that it has been over a decade since the Junior Olympics has been held in this area. There will be people from our area and Central Arizona. Parking will be crazy over the next few weekends. Mr. Sparks also attended some of the soccer games. He said that some of the games were nail bitters.
